

CITY SWELTERS AS THE MERCURY CLIMBS NEAR 100

Washington was knocked on the head today with a stifling of boiling thermometer and well saturated with a wash of hot liquid known as humidity.

After that, the people went about the streets and would not be comforted. Collars wilted, tempers were lost almost beyond recovery, hundreds muttered harsh things about the ill of city life, and the heat waves were busy every minute.

Before 1 o'clock the mercury had danced as high as 92 and was getting in shape for some more fancy steps. And out of the mouth of the official weather forecaster, there came a delightful sound. It was as follows:

"The weather will be about the same as it is now for the next two or three days. It will be fair and the sun will shine just the same."

People had better keep on the lookout. Mr. Sunstroke is waiting just around the corner, and he'll get you if you don't watch out!

ALL RIGHT NOW.

"Their money is supposed to be tainted, isn't it?"
"No, not now. The man who made it is dead."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

HIT FROM TRAIN, FLAGMAN DROPS

Felled by a blow on the head with a railroad coupling pin, John Cooney, twenty-five years old, of 407 Brewster court northeast, was seriously and perhaps fatally hurt this morning. Detective O'Dea and police of the Ninth district are looking for Freight Conductor Christopher Benson, who is alleged to have hurled the heavy iron rod at Cooney. He is a flagman stationed at Fourth and R streets northwest.

About 3 o'clock this morning Benson's train passed the crossing, and Cooney is said to have made a remark to him. Benson, who stood on the platform of the caboose, several feet above Cooney, is alleged to have seized the coupling pin, aimed it at the flagman's head and hit him on the forehead. Cooney dropped unconscious. An hour or more later he regained consciousness and walked to his home. Detective O'Dea, of the Central Office, made an investigation and took the injured man to the Casualty Hospital. Eight stitches were necessary to close the wound.

MAIL ORDER CO. ACCUSED OF FRAUD

The Postoffice Department today issued a fraud order against the Co-operative Advertising Company, of 59 Franklin street, Stamford, Conn., denying to the concern the use of the mails.

It is alleged that the company obtained names and addresses of individuals from letter brokers, and then opened correspondence with them, stating that on receipt of $1.37 a ring or watch would be sent, which the company claimed was due the individual as the result of a prize contest.

The inspector reported that all the representations were false, and that the jewelry sent was nothing more than mere toys, worth much less than the amount charged.

MAN'S FOOT SPRAINED, ROCK FALLS IN SEWER

Caught under a falling rock which tumbled into a sewer at Twenty-first and M streets northwest, where he was working, Mack Lee, twenty-three years old, was painfully injured about the right leg and foot yesterday afternoon. Conveyed to the Emergency Hospital, it was found that his foot was sprained and he would not be able to leave the hospital for several days. Several other workmen narrowly escaped being crushed to death by the rock.

TOLD HORSE TO BACK, WENT OVER INTO CANAL

"Whoa! Gee! Gedap! Back, I tell you!" When James Rice addressed this language to the horse while maneuvering his cart, the animal, after a series of false starts, forward plunges, and kicks, finally backed the two-wheeled affair over the dump at the foot of First street southwest. With the cart went the driver and the horse.

Over and over, the trash-laden vehicle, grime-besmeared driver, and frightened horse turned, and finally landed in James Creek Canal with a splash. Rice barely escaped drowning. He was thrown into the water and held under the cart until J. W. White, a watchman on the dump, and others, led the horse out of the canal.

MEN WAIVE EXAMINATION ON GAMBLING CHARGE

In answer to the charge of "putting up a gaming table," Frederick Volz and Philip Anderson appeared before Judge Mills in the Police Court this morning to plead not guilty to the allegation and waive their preliminary examination.

Through their attorney, Campbell Carrington, they announced their willingness to have a hearing before the grand jury without any other formality. Assistant District Attorney Ralph Given requested that the bond in their case be raised from $300 to $500 pending their hearing before the jury.

S.S.S. A CERTAIN SAFE TREATMENT

S. S. S. is the only safe and reliable cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It is purely vegetable, made entirely from healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and in addition to curing this vile disorder, S. S. S. builds up every part of the system. Mercury and potash cannot cure the trouble; they can only mask it in the system for awhile, and when they are left off the disease returns, usually, in worse form than before, and the patient finds he has damaged his health with these strong minerals, which disintegrate the delicate lining of the stomach, affect the bowels, produce chronic dyspepsia and often set up Mercurial Rheumatism. It will not do to trifle with a disease so powerful as Contagious Blood Poison, for every day it remains in the blood it is progressing toward a dangerous stage, and will in the end get beyond the control of any treatment. S. S. S. cures blood poison in the right way, it goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of the virus. No bad results are ever experienced from the use of S. S. S. It is gentle and pleasant in its action, and forty years of cures warrant the statement that S. S. S. is not only a safe but a certain treatment. Home treatment book on this disease and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.
